John 14:15-19, 26-27: "If you love me, keep my commands. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever—the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. . . .The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid."

ASK

What key word or phrase sticks out to you in this passage?

AT THE END OF THE DAY, REFLECT

Where did I sense God's loving presence alongside me today?

CHALLENGE: As you begin each day, pray: "God, what do you have for me today?" As you go throughout your day, repeat this prayer to yourself: "Come, Holy Spirit."
(Tip: schedule this in your phone for regular intervals, or practice it each time you enter a big meeting, conversation, or different space.)
