

Summer Intern - 2023 (multiple intern positions available)

CPC Vision

To boldly extend the invitation Jesus makes to us, to everyone.

Overview

The Summer Intern position provides the opportunity to deepen your personal relationship with God, develop leadership skills, and gain valuable job experience. This experience at CPC includes opportunities to be a part of the local church in a new and exciting way. Summer interns are immersed in either Kids' Ministries (birth – 5th grade) or Student Ministries (6th – 12th grade), depending on the intern's area of interest and the church's needs. The internship offers young adults a chance to actively participate in both relational and programmatic ministry at CPC while also focusing on personal spiritual and professional development.

Note: Applicants must be one year post high school graduation up to age 24.
